Pasar Malam Traders to be Evicted?

Mon, 10 Sept - In a shocking turn of events, traders at the Kg Kerinchi pasar malam were told last week that they must vacate the pasar malam location they have been at for the past 20 years. YB Nurul Izzah intervened in the nick of time when, on Friday 7th September at 5pm, DBKL came down to evict the traders even as visitors arrived for the bi-weekly pasar malam. She managed to negotiate with DBKL to delay the eviction until certain key issues have been cleared, including:

- providing a suitable replacement site for the pasar malam
- traffic impact assessment report, as DBKL said the road is to be dedicated for the nearby development site
- environmental impact assessment report

Subsequently, YB Nurul Izzah organized a press conference on Monday 10th September with the traders to highlight their plight.

DBKL has thus far said that a new location site is

Celebrating Raya with KTM Bangsar residents

Wed, 12 Sept - YB Nurul Izzah today visited the open house of KTM Bangsar residents, located in Bangsar Utama. Such visits are highly welcomed, and it was apparent from the warm reception that Nurul Izzah is well-loved in this area. Even so, there is much to be done, especially for KTM workers who were recently informed that there might be a take-over of KTM Berhad by Tan Sri Syed Mokhtar's MMC.

The Spirit of Giving

Friday, 14 Sept - In the last few days of Syawal, some 30 residents of Lembah Pantai received donations in the form of hampers and wheelchairs from YB Nurul Izzah Anwar, MP for Lembah Pantai. The simple ceremony was done at the Lembah Pantai MP's Service Centre in Jalan Pantai Murni 6, Pantai Dalam.

The Mechanics of My Hope

(YB Nurul Izzah's article, written when she was 21.)

Regrets, they say, are a part of life. A life led without regrets is a life not well lived. I've had regrets, as I'm sure most of us have. I am not regretful of how my life turned out (yes, I am aware that this is only my 21st year on Earth) but instead, regretful of how slow I am in reaching the realm of idealism.

Life for me began with a certain sense of normalcy, and definitely devoid of any feeling of youthful exuberance mingled with any leaning towards a meaningful idealism. This was certainly the existing scenario, up until the September of 1998.

The month before of the same year... (Read more)
